James' Court, Buckingham Gate, S.W. G. C. Jones to W.O. CUS417/2.29 St. James' Court, earlier, but I was on duty in the Shornoliffs are not of last woek and since return Baturday morning have been (neitirw-bnah) Dear Sir William, I only got back last night and found orders to go to Canada at once: so am off on Thursday. I am afraid therefore that I will not accept your very kind suggestion about a dinner. It is good of you. I do not know what fate has in store for me out there - but I will put up as good a fight as I can. Many thanks for your kindness and help. Yours sincerely, G. C. Jones. P.S. McCombe - that gallant soul - goes perhaps with me - perhaps not till port work
