An A C T for establishing an Health-office, for otherwise securing the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pes-tilential and contagious diseases, and for regulating the importation of German and other passengers.

WHEREAS the laws for preventing pes-tilential and infectious diseases being brought into this commonwealth have proved defective, and the increasing intercourse between the United States, and foreign countries renders it necessary to provide as well for the establishment of an efficient Health Office, as for otherwise more effectually securing the port and city of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases, and regulating the importation of German and other passengers.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the messuage, tenements and lot of ground, situate and being on the island in the river Delaware commonly called State-Island, which have heretofore been reserved, occupied, and employed for the purpose of a public hospital, or pest house, shall be, and the same are hereby erected and established into an Health Office for the port of Philadelphia. And the Inspectors of the said Health Office hereinafter mentioned shall cause the said messuage, tenements and lot of ground, and such other buildings as they shall at any time deem it expedient, for the uses herein prescribed, to erect and build on the said lot, to be in such form and manner constructed, contrived, arranged, kept and disposed of, as shall most effectually provide for the comfort, relief and security of the sick persons who may be lawfully sent, removed to, or placed in the said Health Office, for smoking, cleansing and purifying such goods, wares, merchandize and cloathing infected, or suspected to be infected, as may for that purpose be there landed and delivered. And for accomodating the several officers of the said Health Office, according to their respective stations therein, and that the business of the said Health Office may be well and certainly conducted, there shall be appointed by the Governor a Resident Physician, a Consulting Physician, and an Health Officer. And the Inspectors herein after mentioned shall appoint, in the manner herein after directed, a Steward, a Matron, and so many Assistants or Nurses as they shall from time to time find requisite and proper, to be employed in attending upon the sick persons aforesaid, or in fumigating, cleansing, and purifying the goods, wares, merchandize and cloathing which may be landed and delivered at the said Health Office, for the purpose and in the condition aforesaid.

Seçt. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Resident Physician permanently to reside at the said Health Office on State-Island, diligently and impartially with his best skill to attend upon and to administer medical assistance to each and every sick person that shall be therein lodged, and carefully to visit and examine and report all ships and vessels entering the port of Philadelphia from places beyond sea; and if upon examining any ship or vessel, it shall appear to the said Resident Physician that the persons on board the same are free from every pestilential or contagious disease (exclusively of the small pox and measles) and and he shall see no cause to suspect that the cargoe, or any part thereof, is infected, he shall forthwith deliver to the captain or master of such ship or vessel a certificate reporting the wholesome state of the persons and cargoe on board thereof to the Health-officer residing in the city of Philadelphia; and the said captain or master may thereupon proceed according to his destination, and shall deliver such certificate to the said Health-officer within the space of twenty-four hours from and after the arrival of his ship or vessel opposite to the city of Philadelphia. But if it shall appear to the said Resident Physician, that any person or persons on board of any ship or vessel is, or are afflicted with any pestilential or contagious disease, (the small pox and measles excepted) or if there shall be any cause to suspect that the cargoe, or any part thereof, is infected with any such disease, he shall detain such ship or vessel at anchor in the stream of the river Delaware opposite to the said Health-office, until the person or persons so afflicted, or the cargoe, or the part thereof so infected, shall be landed at the said Health-office, and also until such further effectual measures shall have been used for cleansing and purifying the ship or vessel itself as the said Resident Physician shall devise and direct. And when it shall appear to the said Resident Physician, that such last mentioned ship or vessel has been effectually cleansed and purified, he shall deliver to the captain or master thereof a certificate reporting to the said Health Officer residing in the city of Philadelphia, the number of sick persons and the quantity of goods, wares and merchandize, landed therefrom at the said Health-office, and the measures which have been used for cleansing and purifying the said ship or vessel; and the said captain or master may thereupon proceed according to his destination, and shall deliver such last mentioned

Sect. 14. And be it further enacted by the au- thority aforesaid, That from the time any ship or vessel shall have put to sea, all the goods, wares and merchandize of the passengers aforesaid, on board thereof, who have not paid for their passages at the place from whence they sailed, shall stand a lawful pledge for the freight money of such passengers, until the same shall be fully paid and satisfied; and it shall be lawful for the master, captain, owner, or consignee of such ship or vessel, at any time within thirty days after the arrival of such passengers within this commonwealth, to apply to any two Aldermen, or Justices of the Peace, for the city or county where such passengers shall be landed, for an execution against the goods wares and merchandize of such passengers, and the said Aldermen, or Justices, are hereby empowered and required to issue a summons, directed to a constable of the place where the defendant liveth, to summons such defendant to appear before them, on some certain day, therein to be expressed, not less than five, nor exceeding eight days from the date of such process, to shew cause why such execution should not be granted, and at the time appointed, the said Aldermen, or Justices, having heard the allegations and proofs of the parties, shall give judgment thereon, or at the request of either of the parties, shall appoint auditors, or, if the defendant cannot be found, or doth not appear, give judgment for the freight money that shall appear to be due, and award execution against the goods, wares and merchandize of such defendant, with such costs of suit as are by law allowed on the recovery of debts of equal amount; and the master, captain, owner or consignee of any ship or vessel importing passengers as aforesaid,

Sect. 21. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Philadelphia, in Common Council assembled, shall have power, by their ordinance for that purpose, to prohibit any future interments within such parts of the city of Philadelphia wherein they shall judge such prohibition necessary, and to impose such fines for any breach of such ordinance as they may deem necessary.

Sect. 22. And whereas, by a patent under the great seal of the commonwealth, bearing date the thirteenth day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, city lots therein described were granted to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Philadelphia, and their successors in trust for public use as a burial ground for the interment of deceased strangers, and such other persons who may not have been in communion with any any religious society at the time of their decease : And whereas no interments have yet taken place in either oft he said lots, and it would be advantageous to the Citizens of Philadelphia if the said lots should be disposed of, and the money arising from the sale thereof should be applied to the purchase of other ground more extensive and suitable, as well for the purposes aforesaid as for the general interment of persons dying in the city Philadelphia and its immediate vicinity; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Philadelphia, or their successors, to sell and dispose of three certain lots of ground within the city of Philadelphia, or any or either of them, which lots are described in a patent under the great seal of this commonwealth, dated the thirteenth day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety, granting the same to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens for the uses and trusts therein mentioned, and to apply the money arising from such sale to the purchase of such other lot or lots of ground out of the bounds of the city or the inhabited parts thereof, as they may judge suitable and necessary for a place of general interment, of persons who may hereafter die in the city of Philadelphia, or the suburbs thereof.
