IT will, doubtless, afford peculiar Satisfaction to every humane Disposition, to reflect upon the generous and benevolent Spirit which appears, under various Forms, in different Parts of this great Metropolis,

The Compassion and Liberality of the past and present Age, have provided several Hospitals, and other salutary Means of relieving the Distressed: Yet, still it must be allowed, they are, in some Cases, inadequate to the laudable End proposed by such Institutions.

The Importance and Utility of the industrious Poor to a civilized and commercial State are indisputable: They, consequently, claim our serious Regard, and are entitled to our charitable Assistance. Experience shews, that, as they are subject in common with the Rest of Mankind to a great Variety of Diseases, so they labour under many peculiar to themselves; exposed to the Changes of the Weather, or confined to unhealthy Habitations, and engaged in various Employments, they fall a Prey to numerous Complaints, sufficient to excite the Attention, and implore the Aid of the Benevolent and Wealthy.

Impressed with these Considerations, in the Year 1770, a charitable Institution was established in Aldersgate-Street, under the Name of the GENERAL-DISPENSARY: But that Charity being confined to the City, in respect of visiting the Poor at their own Habitations, the LONDON-DISPENSARY was established, to afford the like Relief to the industrious Poor in the Eastern Parts of the Metropolis.

The great Encouragement this Charity has already received from a generous and benevolent Public; the Number of Objects relieved by so easy and moderate a Subscription; and the truly charitable end it has in View, leave no Reason to doubt but that its Friends will daily become more and more numerous. Thus the industrious Poor will easily obtain Recommendations from such of their benevolent Neighbours as are kindly disposed to alleviate the Miseries of their Fellow-Creatures, to stop the Ravages of Disease, soften the Anguish of Pain, and rescue from the Jaws of Death many useful Members of Society.

The Limits for visiting Patients at their own Habitations, extend from Shoreditch-Church to Whitechapel-Church, including the Whole of Spitalfields; from thence to Hermitage-Stairs, Wapping, including Goodman's-Fields; and from thence along the River-Side to Crane-Stairs, through Queen-Street, King-Street, and Coleman-Street, into Moorfields, to Doghhouse-Bar, and Shoreditch-Church.

An Account of the Patients admitted since the Opening of the Dispensary on the 16th of June, 1777, to the 31st of December, 1794, both Days inclusive.

To such as are inclined to become Benefactors by Will, the following Form of a Legacy is recommended.

Item, I give and bequeath unto A, B, and C, D, the Sum of _____ to be raised and paid by and out of my Personal Estate and Effects, which by Law I may or can charge with the Payment thereof, upon Trust, and to the Intent that they, or either of them do pay the same to the Treasurer (for the Time being) of a Charity, called or known by the Name of the LONDON-DISPENSARY, for Relief of the Poor, at the Dispensary, or their own Habitations, instituted in the Year 1777, and now kept in Primrose-Street; which said Sum I desire may be applied towards carrying on the benevolent Designs of the said Charity; and the Receipt of the Treasurer shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same.

N. B. Giving Land, Money, or Stock by Will, with Directions to be laid out in the Purchase of any Estate for the Benefit of this Charity, will be void by the Statute of Mortmain; but Money or Stock may be given by Will, without being directed to be laid out.
