NATIONAL LIBRARY OF MEDICINE NOTICE.
BETHESDA 14, MD.

Two thousand copies of this pamphlet have been printed, of which it is intended to send a few copies to each of the benevolent institutions mentioned therein, also a copy to members of the bar and to conveyancers, and to about one thousand five hundred of our wealthy citizens, and if the requisite funds are provided, to have the pamphlet stereotyped, in order that small editions of five hundred copies, may from time to time be printed and put into circulation.

MARCH 30, 1859.

The following FORMS OF BEQUEST OR DEVISE will, by inserting in the blank space the Title of the Institution, intended to be designated by the will, answer for all INCORPORATED INSTITUTIONS.

OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

I do give and bequeath to the _____ at Philadelphia, the sum of _____

OF REAL ESTATE.

I do give and devise unto the _____ at
Philadelphia, their successors and assigns forever, all that certain, (describe the real estate,) with the appurtenances.

Persons intending to bequeath or devise to Charitable Institutions not incorporated, are advised to consult counsel as to the legal form.

Attention must be given to the following important law, viz :

Extract from an Act of Assembly, approved 26th April, 1855, relative to Devises and Bequests to Charitable Institutions.

“SECTION 11. No estate, real or personal, shall hereafter be bequeathed, devised or conveyed to any body politic, or to any person, in trust for religious or charitable uses, except the same be done by deed or will, attested by two credible, and at the time disinterested witnesses, at least one calendar month before the decease of the testator or alienor; and all dispositions of property contrary hereto, shall be void and go to the residuary legatee or devisee, next of kin or heirs according to law; Provided, That any disposition of property within said period, bona fide made for a fair valuable consideration, shall not be hereby avoided.”

INTRODUCTION.

THE object of this publication is to furnish an accurate list of the Charitable Associations of our city, and the usual and proper forms of bequest or devise, for the convenience of those who may wish to remember them in their Wills, or in conveyance of property in anticipation of death.

It is believed to contain a full and accurate list of all such charities of a public character, but is not intended to include private beneficial associations, or those of a sectarian nature.

If it shall prove serviceable in directing the course of liberality, in a single instance, to any one of our many noble and worthy objects of public and private benevolence, the aim of the compilers will be fully attained.

NOTE.—A conspicuous color has been selected for the cover, so that this pamphlet may be readily distinguished from any other.

THE HOWARD INSTITUTION, UNDER THE CARE OF AN ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN FRIENDS OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated by the Court of Common Pleas, September 20, 1858.

Situated at No. 1612 Poplar Street.

President, Rebecca Collins.

Secretary, Rebecca T. Haines.

Treasurer, Regina S. Kimber.

This Charitable Institution was opened for a home for discharged Female Prisoners, of rather superior minds and some education, who have not been prostitutes; as the Magdalen Asylum and the Rosine offer a home for the latter class. "The Association of Women Friends," who, for thirty years past, have made weekly visits to our prisons, state, as of frequent occurrence, that female prisoners often afford satisfactory evidence of sincere repentance, and earnest desires to reform and regain their lost characters; yet, when discharged from prison, they are, for want of employment, often reduced to great distress, and of course are subjected to sore temptations. To starve or steal seems to be the alternative left for them. Men can obtain employment; but what family will receive and employ women just discharged from prison, and without any character? But such are received into this asylum, and are industriously employed, until the sincerity of their desires to reform have been fully tested; after which, suitable places, far in the country, are provided, and they are thus removed from the corrupting influence of former associates. Many such have been saved; but for want of more funds the usefulness of The Howard Institution is greatly circumscribed. Having no funds invested, it is entirely dependent on donations and annual subscriptions.

THE CONTRIBUTORS TO THE PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL.

Established for the benefit of all citizens and strangers who require and seek its aid.

WILLS' HOSPITAL FOR THE DISEASES OF THE BLIND AND LAME.

It is not Incorporated.

Situated between 18th and 19th Streets, opposite Logan Square.

President, John Rodman Paul.

Secretary, Edward Hopper.

The Wills' Hospital for the Diseases of the Eye and Limb was founded by the late James Wills, of Philadelphia, who bequeathed to the Mayor and Corporation of the City a part of his estate for that purpose.

It is beautifully situated on Race Street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth Streets, immediately opposite to Logan Square; and was opened for the reception of patients in 1834—admission being granted to such only as are capable either of cure or relief.

A Board of Managers, appointed by the Councils, confide the medical charge of the Hospital to four Surgeons, who attend in turn, and give their services gratuitously.

The smallness of the funds remaining after the purchase of the lot and the erection of the building has not allowed the admission at any one time of more than thirty-five or forty persons; but the usefulness of the Institution has been greatly extended by the appropriation of certain days in every week for advice to out-patients, who flock to it from all parts of the city and country, in number annually from 1500 to 2000.

The same reason has restricted its operations chiefly to the Diseases of the Eye; though, with greater means, more ample accommodations could be provided for the Lame also, and thus afford to the city the advantages almost of another general hospital.

Form of a Legacy.—I give and bequeath to the City of Philadelphia, in trust, for the use of the Wills' Hospital for the relief of the indigent blind and the lame, the sum of _____ dollars.

THE SAINT JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

Incorporated 1850.

Girard Avenue between 16th and 17th Streets.

President, Rt. Rev. James T. Wood.

Secretary, James A. Doyle.

Treasurer, Charles A. Repplier.

Under the control of the Roman Catholic Church, but admits persons of every creed, color and country.

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated 1859.

Blight Street, east of Broad Street, and between Pine and Lombard Street.

President, Mordecai D. Lewis.

Secretary, John H. Atwood.

Treasurer, Morton P. Henry.

Intended for sick children of Poor Parents, between the ages of two and twelve years.

THE FEMALE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Incorporated March 11, 1850.

No. 628 Arch Street.

President, Charles D. Cleveland.

Secretary, William S. Pierce.

Treasurer, Marmaduke Moore.

Designed to give to women as thorough a medical education as can be obtained by men; so that they can skilfully and successfully administer to that large class of diseases peculiar to her sex, and be the intelligent as well as the sympathizing attendant in the chambers of the sick.

Secretary, Mrs. A. V. Murphey.

Treasurer, Mrs. R. Hammett.

TRUSTEES.—President, Thomas Earp.

Secretary, MacGregor J. Mitcheson.

Treasurer, John W. Claghorn.

For the support and tuition of deserted or friendless children under 12 years of age, with power to provide them with suitable homes, until their majority, and similar in other respects to the above institution.

THE HOUSE OF REFUGE.

Incorporated March 23rd, 1826.

Situated between Parrish and Poplar and 22d and 24th Streets.

President, Thomas Earp.

Secretary, Alexander Henry.

Treasurer, George W. Fobes.

This is a school for the education and moral improvement of Juvenile Delinquents, and will accommodate in the White Department, four hundred and thirty-two, and in the Colored Department, one hundred and eighty, in all six hundred and twelve children. This Institution is so well known, and its importance and extensive usefulness has been so frequently acknowledged by an expression of public sentiment, that any additional notice of it seems to be unnecessary.

THE WESTERN PROVIDENT SOCIETY AND CHILDREN'S HOME OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated April 8, 1858.

At present on Market above Park Street, 24th Ward. Intend to build at S. E. corner of Logan and Venango Street, Twenty fourth Ward.

President, Miss Susan J. O'Neill.

Secretary, Mrs. Charles Brown.

COUNCIL.—President, Richard Vaux.

Secretary, D. C. M'Cammon.

Treasurer, E. W. Clark.

This institution is somewhat similar to the Northern Home for Friendless Children except that in some cases a small weekly sum is received from the parents, and the children received are generally younger.

FOSTER HOME ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA.

Chartered by the Governor January 14, 1839.

Situating between 20th and 21st and Hamilton and Spring Garden Streets.

First Directress, Mrs. G. W. Toland.Secretary, — — —Treasurer, Mrs. E. S. Simmons.

COUNCIL—E. K. Price, John Welsh.

This Institution is for the reception of children of widows and widowers, who pay according to their ability, not exceeding 75 cents per week. A limited number of children are supported entirely by the Association, when long-continued illness of the parent or other causes throw them upon its charity. The children are received from three to nine years of age, and retained until suitable places are obtained for them, or their surviving parent receives them.

THE TEMPORARY HOME ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated January 29, 1852.

No. 37 Zane Street.

President, Sidney Ann Lewis.Secretary, S. F. Dawes.Treasurer, Mary W. Brooks.

This charity is intended to furnish a cheap and comfortable place of boarding to single women and children until they can procure employment.

THE NEWS BOYS' AID SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated June 7, 1858.

No. 221 Spruce Street.

President, John Bohlen.Secretary, George S. Fox.Treasurer, William Purves.

The objects of this Society are to provide lodging and education for homeless and indigent boys engaged in the occupation of vending newspapers and periodicals, in the City of Philadelphia, and to encourage in them, by suitable means, habits of morality and economy.

PHILADELPHIA LYING IN CHARITY FOR ATTENDING INDIGENT
WOMEN AT THEIR OWN HOMES,Incorporated May 7, 1832.

AND

THE PHILADELPHIA NURSE SOCIETY,

NOW UNITED AND KNOWN AS

THE PHILADELPHIA LYING IN CHARITY AND NURSE SOCIETY.

No. 931 Race Street.

President, Casper Wistar, M. D.Secretary, Isaac S. Williams.Treasurer, Edward Parrish.

The objects of this charity are to afford medical aid to indigent married women at their own homes during their confinement, to provide nourishment adapted to their condition during their convalescence, and to furnish to such as require it a competent nurse. Incidentally to these objects, attention is given to the careful training of suitable women for the responsible duties of the lying-in chamber, and a register of qualified nurses is kept at the Nurses' Home for public reference. This charity is entirely dependent on donations and annual subscriptions, of which more is requisite for its support.

THE PRESTON RETREAT.

Incorporated, by Act of Assembly, June 16, 1836.

Situated between 20th and 21st and Hamilton and Spring Garden Streets.

President, John M. Ogden.

Secretary, Edward Hopper.

Treasurer, Eli K. Price.

The late Dr. Preston, by his will, bequeathed funds to establish an institution for a lying in charity, which it is intended soon to open.

UNION BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

Incorporated March 28, 1837.

Office, South 7th, two doors North of Sansom Street.

President, Charles S. Wurts.

Secretary, John H. Atwood.

Treasurer, Edmund Wilcox.

This charitable Institution is so extensively known and approved of, that it is unnecessary to state more than the legal title. It is obliged to rely upon the subscriptions and donations of the citizens for its annual expenditures, which from the great extent of its benevolent operations are necessarily very large.

THE PROVIDENT SOCIETY FOR EMPLOYING THE POOR.

Incorporated, 1842.

Prune below Sixth Street.

President, John A. Brown.

Secretary, William H. Larned.

Treasurer, William L. Edwards.

This Society was first organized as early as 1824, by Bishop White, Roberts Vaux, Alexander Henry, Thomas Astley, Philip Garrett and others, having for its object not the distribution of alms, but to provide employment in the winter season, when work is with difficulty obtained, principally to aged women, widows and mothers with young children, not however to the exclusion of other deserving persons. In the winter of 1856-7, 678 women were employed, who made 16,200 shirts.

THE FEMALE SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA, FOR THE RELIEF AND EMPLOYMENT OF THE POOR.

Incorporated January 12, 1815.

No. 112 N. 7th Street.

Clerk, Julianna Randolph.

Treasurer, Mary Ann Bacon.

This Society is the oldest of this character in the city, having been instituted in the autumn of the year 1793, following the yellow fever, which left many widows and orphans dependent and suffering. Its object is to furnish employment during the winter season, at the House of Industry, to aged women and those with young children, who cannot obtain other work. A nursery department, well warmed rooms and a comfortable dinner are provided, and a small daily compensation given. All that are employed are visited and kept under care, and their necessities attended to when sick. One hundred and fifty women and fifty children are now on the list. Some outdoor relief is also furnished to aged persons who are unable to work.

WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF LADIES, FOR THE RELIEF AND EMPLOYMENT OF THE POOR.

Incorporated September 15, 1856.

17th between Chestnut and Market Streets.

President, Sarah F. Key.

Secretary, H. A. Zell.

Treasurer, E. M. Morris.

The object of this association is to afford employment, for which a small compensation is given, to aged and infirm females and those who, having little children, are unable to leave them to go out to work. They are employed in the house, in a large and airy sewing room, while the little children are placed in the nursery, under the superintendence of competent nurses; and those who attend the public schools are allowed to come and partake of a comfortable dinner, which is freely given to all. The whole is under the charge of the lady managers, who are daily in attendance.

THE NORTHERN ASSOCIATION OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA, FOR THE RELIEF
AND EMPLOYMENT OF POOR WOMEN.

Incorporated April, 1849.

President, Lucretia Mott.

Secretary, Lydia Gillingham.

Many infirm and destitute women have, by this charity, been enabled to obtain a living, who would otherwise have been a burthen upon society.

THE CENTRAL EMPLOYMENT ASSOCIATION.

Incorporated.

S. E. corner Ninth and Green Streets.

President, Abigail W. Ellis.

Secretary, Ann A. Townsend.

Treasurer, Elizabeth W. Lippincott.

The object of this Association is to give employment in sewing, at a reasonable compensation, to deserving poor women, the garments thus made being designed for gratuitous distribution among the adult sick and infirm, and to children.

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY FOR THE EMPLOY- MENT AND INSTRUCTION OF THE POOR.

Incorporated 1858.

Catharine between 7th and 8th Streets.

President, Thomas T. Tasker.

Secretary, Coleman L. Nicholson.

Treasurer, Wistar Morris.

For the efficient promotion of its objects, the society erected the building known as "The Moyamensing House of Industry," on Catharine Street above Seventh. No age, color or sex is excluded from the benefits of the institution. To help the poor to help themselves, is the purpose kept in view. There are lodgings for about one hundred and fifty persons; and twice this number are not unfrequently furnished with meals in a single day. There are two work rooms, which in the winter season are well filled with women employed in sewing. Baths and conveniences for washing both their persons and clothing are furnished the poor, free of charge. Clothing and nourishment are given to the sick, and fuel is sold in small quantities at about half the cost. Efforts are made to procure employment for inmates whose characters prove satisfactory. An industrial school for girls, an infant school, and a school for colored children are maintained with an aggregate average attendance exceeding two hundred. A Dispensary is sustained, with a resident apothecary. A physician attends daily to prescribe, and out door cases are attended by four visiting physicians. With the exception of an income of less than $100, the society is wholly dependent for support upon annual subscriptions.

THE PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB.

Incorporated February, 1821.

Corner of Broad and Pine Streets.

President, Franklin Bache.

Secretary, James J. Barclay.

Treasurer, John Bacon.

Indigent deaf mutes are received, between the ages of ten and twenty years of age, from all parts of Pennsylvania.

THE PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTION FOR THE IN-STRUCTION OF THE BLIND.

Incorporated January 27, 1834.

Corner of Race and 20th Streets.

President, Samuel Breck.

Secretary, Theodore Cuyler.

Treasurer, Robert Patterson.

THE CONTRIBUTORS TO THE ASYLUM FOR THE RELIEF OF PERSONS DEPRIVED OF THE USE OF THEIR REASON.

Not incorporated.

Near Frankford, 23rd Ward.

Clerk, William Bettle.

Treasurer, Horatio C. Wood.

This Asylum is in a pleasant and healthy situation in one of the rural districts of the City of Philadelphia. It was founded in the year 1813, by members of the Society of Friends, with a view of affording to those afflicted with insanity the domestic comforts usually found in a private family, combined with skillful moral and medical treatment.

FORMS OF LEGACY.

I. FORM OF A BEQUEST OF PERSONAL ESTATE.

"I give and bequeath to A. B. and C. D., and the survivor of them, and the executors and administrators of such survivor, the sum of _____ in trust for the use of an Institution in Philadelphia, known by the name of 'The Contributors to the Asylum for the Relief of Persons deprived of the Use of their Reason,' and to be paid by the said Trustees to the Treasurer for the time being of the said Institution."

II. FORM OF A DEVISE OF REAL ESTATE.

"I give and devise to A. B. and C. D., and their heirs, all that (here describe the property) _____ together with the appurtenances, to hold to them, the said A. B. and C. D., and the survivor of them, and the heirs of such survivor forever; in trust nevertheless, for the sole use and benefit of an Institution in Philadelphia, known by the name of 'The Contributors to the Asylum for the Relief of Persons Deprived of the Use of their Reason,' and upon this further trust, absolutely to dispose of, and convey the same, either in fee, or for such other estate, and in such way and manner, as the Contributors to the said Asylum shall, at any meeting or meetings, order, direct and appoint."

THE PENNSYLVANIA TRAINING SCHOOL FOR FEEBLE-MINDED CHILDREN.

Incorporated April 7, 1853.—Amended by Court of Common Pleas, February 20th, 1858.

President, Rt. Rev. Alonzo Potter.

Secretary, Franklin Taylor.

Treasurer, Alexander Fullerton.

This Institution is doing a good work to a most needy class of children, and could do much more with increased means. Its claims upon the benevolent, for support and endowment, are in proportion to the helplessness and need of those for whose benefit it is designed, and it is most earnestly recommended to their favorable consideration. It is at present located at Germantown, but soon will be removed to Media, Delaware Co., Pa., where new buildings are being erected, which will accommodate one hundred and thirty children.

THE ORPHANS' SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated January 29, 1816.

Corner of Cherry and 18th Streets.

Directress, Sarah W. Fisher.

Secretary, Rebecca Gratz

THE GRANDOM INSTITUTION.

Incorporated, by Act of Assembly, April 23, 1841.

Office, No. 811 Arch Street.

President, John M. Ogden.

Secretary and Treasurer, Henry C. Townsend.

The object of the Grandom Institution is two fold; the income of part of the fund is loaned to young men on satisfactory security, to commence the various pursuits which they have learned, the income of the other fund is employed in furnishing coal to the deserving poor, but not the intemperate, at a reduced price, about one half of the cost.

THE APPRENTICES' LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated, A. D. 1820.

Corner of 5th and Arch Streets.

President, James J. Barclay.

Secretary, Thomas Ridgway.

Treasurer, Samuel Mason.

A library for the free use of minors of both sexes, and contained in 1858, about 15,000 volumes.

THE YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

Incorporated May 21st, 1851.

Has no building appropriated to its use.

President, William Welsh.

Secretary, William L. Rehn.

Treasurer, S. Morris Waln.

The objects of this institution are "to encourage and foster among the young men of our laboring population in the city and county of Philadelphia, the spirit of self-improvement, by the establishment of libraries, reading-rooms, lectures, &c." To carry out these objects, the Board of Trustees, from a fund of about $31,000 entrusted to them, loaned to the five following co-operating institutions each $5,000 without interest, reserving about $6,000 for a fund, the income from which is expended to promote the objects of the institution. The five institutions referred to are as follows:

THE SPRING GARDEN INSTITUTE.

Incorporated by Act of Assembly 1851—Charter amended by Court of Common Pleas, December 1, 1856.

Incorporated in 1802.

Corner of 21st and Race Streets.

President, Rt. Rev. Alonzo Potter.

Secretary, Joshua W. Ash, M. D.

Treasurer, William Biddle.

The object is the reformation, employment and instruction of females who have led immoral lives, and there is reason to believe several hundred females have, through the instrumentality of this Society, been restored to the paths of virtue and happiness.

THE ROSINE ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA.

Incorporated April 10, 1848.

8th above Wood Street.

President, Mary B. Thain.Secretary, Harriet Probasco.Treasurer, Mira Townsend, 622 Race Street.

The Rosine Association of Philadelphia was incorporated April 11th, 1848, "to secure from vice and degradation a class of women who have forfeited their claims to the respect of the virtuous—to prepare and maintain for them an Asylum, which, by its system of religious instruction, shall elevate their moral nature—teach them how to gain an honest living by the 'work of their own hands,' and eventually to render them useful members of the community."

The members of this Society are females, but every person is invited to become a contributor.

The Institution is at present located at 320 North Eighth Street, in a private dwelling, where it will remain until funds can be obtained to erect a more suitable building.

The limited funds of the Association have prevented the managers from obtaining a building sufficiently large to admit the numerous applicants, many of whom cannot be received for want of room and suitable accommodations.

AMERICAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

Incorporated.

No. 1122 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

President, Hon. John McLean.

Secretary, Frederick A. Packard.

Treasurer, W. J. Cheyney.

Objects.—As members of various Christian denominations, Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Episcopalian, Reformed Dutch, Congregationalist, Lutheran, &c., we are associated for the purpose of establishing Sunday-schools in destitute parts of the country, supplying them with needful books, and aiding in the improvement of Sunday-schools generally.

Our organization contemplates one grand specific object,—viz., the gathering of untaught children into schools of religious instruction on the Lord's day. This is done by the labors of stated missionaries, whose office it is to explore new and recently-settled districts and neglected neighborhoods, and occasional missionaries, (chiefly college and seminary students,) organizing or encouraging schools, and supplying the needy with books.
